Past National Prez drops in to promote Ed Conference

By Stuart Deane

Past National Exchange Club President Bob “The Buffalo” Harb (bottom, left) of the Haverhill and Plaistow clubs joined the January 5 Zoom meeting to promote the upcoming District Education Conference on January 23 at 9 a.m.

The conference will be joined by current National President Kathy Mize from St. Petersburg, Fla, who will update us on National news, and Chief Executive Officer Tracey Edwards, who will explain “What National Can Do for You.”

In addition, Past District President Eric LaFleur of the Haverhill club will present ideas on fundraising during the pandemic, and Bob himself will examine how to get the most out of Zoom meetings and how to maintain membership during the pandemic when members “prefer to meet together to work together.”

In other news, long-time member Kathleen Bailey, the founder of our “Field of Honor,” has resigned from membership. She is currently on a long-term mission in Africa.

Schedule

- Jan. 19: Regular Meeting, with speaker Linda Schaeffer of Early Intervention in West Newbury
- Jan. 23: District Education Conference
- Jan. 26: Board of Directors
