Rain fails to dampen 2021-22 Installation spirit

By Stuart Deane

Despite evening showers, heavy at times, the show went on as President Steve DiCamillo's 2021-22 administration was installed and two new members were inducted.

Presiding over the June 22 ceremony at the West Newbury home of Joe and Beverly Murphy was New England District President Sharon Birchall of Methuen, accompanied by District Secretary Stephanie Daniels of Salem, N.H.

"It's so good to see everyone in person," said 2020-21 president Jane Collins in welcoming the gathering. "I'd like to hug every one of you. Enjoy the food. Enjoy the company."

Following an assortment of Italian entrees from Giuseppe's of Newburyport and two parfaits made by Jane herself, Sharon swore in Steve DiCamillo as President, Jane Collins as Past President, Stu Deane as Secretary and Mary Sortal as Treasurer. President-Elect remains open.

Also sworn in were two-year Board members Erin Fournier, Russ Liddle and Mike Viccaro and one-year members Steve Chanin, Joe Murphy and Jim Noyes.

Sworn in as new members were Annmary Connor of Amesbury, the director of the Michael B. Christensen Community & Family Support Center in Lawrence (the Exchange Club's regional prevention of child abuse center) and Carolyn Perry of Plaistow, N.H., a retired teacher of developmentally delayed adults.

Flowers and a bottle of Plum Island wine were presented to our Murphy hosts; flowers, an Exchange Club beach towel and a pub certificate to Jane for her year of pandemic service, flowers to outgoing treasurer Barbara Griffith, new
