Scholarships presented to three 2023 graduates

By Stuart Deane

The June 6 meeting was a festive occasion with the presentation of our three annual college scholarships and the attendance of 12 other guests.

Receiving the Newburyport ACE Award was Megan Guild, accompanied by parents Adam and Jenn. Megan overcame mental health issues, including a hospitalization, to graduate with her class. She will be attending the University of Massachusetts-Boston in a pre-law program.

Receiving the Triton ACE Award was Evelyn Jimenez, who was accompanied by Triton teachers Lara Weis and Carla Wagner. Evelyn came to this country from Guatemala – on her own and without knowing English – to graduate from Triton Regional. She will be attending Northern Essex Community College with an interest in working with children.

The Anthony J. Fusco Community Service Scholarship was presented to Yvette Estevez, accompanied by her mother Yesenia. Yvette will be attending Boston College to major in nursing.

In attendance were Tony's widow, Dawne, and his sister and brother-in-law, Rose and Ernie D'Agostino.

Also in attendance were Newburyport Bank employees Amanda Kelcourse and Cam Shaut, who will be joining the club along with Kishon Joseph, who was unable to attend the meeting, and realtor Holly Mazur, who expressed her interest in joining the club. Jim Noyes brought Brian Sealy as a potential member.

The installation of officers and the induction of new members will be June 20 at 6 p.m. at the 44 Coffin St., West Newbury, home of member Paula Cutter. Details to follow.

Thank You

Dear exchange club of Greater Newburyport Scholarship committee attn: Stuart Deane

Thank you very much for choosing me to receive the Exchange club of Greater Newburyport. I was very surprised and happy to get it. I am grateful for the help and I will work hard and make the most of this opportunity and make you proud you picked me. I am looking forward to starting college in the fall. This summer I will be working at the restaurant and participating in a culinary art program at Whittier Tech.

I appreciate your help and hope to be able to pay your kindness and generosity forward some day

Sincerely,

Evelyn Simenez
