Three new members sworn in, president installed

By Stuart Deane

In the exquisite setting of the West Newbury home of Paula Cutter (right), we inducted three new members (one remotely) and installed yours truly as president for a second consecutive term on June 10.

Installed as new members were real estate agents Maureen Clemens and Annis Dwan (middle) of Berkshire Hathaway, while office manager Sabrina Belaid-Akil was sworn in remotely by phone. Officiating was our division director, Thea Tsagaris of the Haverhill noon club.

“This is probably the first time in Exchange history that a new member has been sworn in remotely,” commented Past National President Bob Harb of the Haverhill club, who went on to conduct the presidential installation.

New members Kishon Joseph, Amanda Kelcourse and Cameron Shaut of Newburyport Bank, realtor Holly Mazur and West Newbury resident Brian Sealy were unable to attend but will be inducted during a regular upcoming meeting.

In good news, member Mike Viccaro was finally able to return after a long recovery from neck surgery. In sad news, this was the last meeting for long-time member and treasurer Barbara Griffith, who is resigning as of the end of this administrative year. Her lively personality and dedication to community service projects will be deeply missed.

The July 4 meeting is cancelled due to the holiday. The next meeting is July 18, with speaker Debbie Hart-Klein, who will discuss issues with helping women with breast cancer, and the induction of new members. Those who can stay late will continue planning for Kids Day in the Park and the Field of Honor.
